1. Clear Understanding of the Question

Before beginning to write, students must thoroughly analyze the question prompt. This involves:

- Identifying command words such as "explain," "analyze," "evaluate," "discuss," or "compare," which dictate the response style.
- Recognizing the specific business concepts or issues involved.
- Clarifying what is being asked?whether it's a discussion of causes, effects, advantages/disadvantages, or recommendations.

A strong introduction sets the tone for the answer. It should:

- Briefly outline the key issue or scenario presented in the question.
- Define relevant business concepts or terminology.
- State the purpose or structure of the response to guide the reader.

For example, if the question involves evaluating a marketing strategy, the introduction might briefly describe the importance of strategic marketing in business success.

This core section forms the heart of the answer and should be subdivided into logical paragraphs or sections, each focusing on specific aspects.

Analysis involves examining the issue critically, applying relevant theories, models, or frameworks such as SWOT analysis, PESTLE, Porter's Five Forces, or the Ansoff Matrix.

Evaluation requires weighing up different options, considering advantages and disadvantages, and making justified judgments.

Best practices include:

- Using real-world examples or case studies where appropriate.

- Financial Ratios and Performance Analysis
- Human Resource Management theories (Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs, Herzberg's

Two-Factor Theory)

- Strategic Management models (SWOT, Porter's Five Forces)

Beyond describing concepts, Task 2 answers gain strength through critical thinking:

- Question assumptions and consider alternative viewpoints.
- Discuss potential unintended consequences.
- Provide justified recommendations based on evidence.

This demonstrates a higher level of cognitive engagement, moving beyond rote memorization.

6. Structured Conclusion and Recommendations

The conclusion should succinctly summarize key points, reaffirm the main analysis, and, if appropriate, suggest actionable recommendations. It should not introduce new information but synthesize insights logically.
